

The State of China Atlas

Mapping the World's Fastest Growing Economy

Stephanie Hemelryk Donald and Robert Benewick

The new edition of this highly acclaimed atlas – published for the first time in Australia – maps the profound changes that are occurring in China as it becomes a market economy. It situates China's position in world economic growth, its trading patterns and partners, and looks at Chinese military power and the Chinese diaspora.

The State of China Atlas contains nearly 40 full-colour maps as well as sophisticated and eye-catching graphics that illustrate China's key economic, political, and social indicators and illustrate the most important issues facing China today.

About the Authors

Stephanie Hemelryk Donald is Professor of Communication and Culture and Director of the Centre for Transforming Cultures at the University of Technology, Sydney (UTS).

Robert Benewick is Professor of Politics at the University of Sussex and is the author of numerous books on China.

Comments

'China is an inescapable part of our future. Intelligently constructed and brilliantly presented, the great advantage of The State of China Atlas is that it allows us to see the dynamic elements of change in China, both domestically and in its interactions with the rest of the world.'

-David S. G. Goodman, Professor of International Studies, UTS, Sydney

'The State of China Atlas is a vital and authoritative resource. Its comprehensive data and colourful comparative graphics present China's dramatically changing society squarely within an international context. This book will be a first reference for ready and reliable information on China.'

-Dr Louise Edwards, Faculty of Asian Studies, ANU, Canberra

'It is still difficult to get reliable hard data from China - this book fills a vital gap.'

-John Gittings, The Guardian

'A great introduction to the diversity of China.'

-Professor Tony Saich, Daewoo Professor on International Affairs, Harvard University
